#T-money Card

T-money cards are essential when using public transportation in Korea. You can use it to take the bus, subway, and even a taxi. The fare is cheaper when using the T-money card over cash, and you can receive discounts when transferring from different forms of public transportation. Purchasing and charging T-money cards can be done at subway stations or convenience stores that offer "Transportation Cards & Charging Stations." You can choose an array of T-money cards from characters to celebrities.
